

AVAILABLE TITLES

Bad Stories

Steve Almond

Nonfiction · 978-1-97864-216-4

Chagos Archipelago

Tom Lutz

Fiction · 978-1-63628-427-9

Talking to the Wolf

Rebecca Chace

Fiction · 978-1-63628-462-0

The Soldier's House

Helen Benedict

Fiction · 978-1-63628-278-7

The Bells

Cai Emmons

Fiction · 978-1-63628-362-3

Given Away

Nahid Rachlin

Fiction · 978-1-63628-479-8

The Opposites Game

Brendan Constantine

Poetry · 978-1-63628-366-1

Sonnets for a Missing Key

Percival Everett

Poetry · 978-1-63628-166-7

The Burning Heart of the World

Nancy Kricorian

Fiction · 978-1-63628-193-3

Dreams in Which I'm Almost Human

Hannah Soyler

Memoir · 978-1-63628-474-3

The Afterlife of a Threadbare Jester

Khanh Ha

Fiction · 978-1-63628-467-5

Cursebreakers

Madeleine Nakamura

Fiction · 978-1-69661-880-9

Angel Eye

Madeleine Nakamura

Fiction · 978-1-69661-881-6

The Sea Gives Up the Dead

Molly Olguín

Fiction · 978-1-69661-879-3

Bind Me Tighter Still

Lara Ehrlich

Fiction · 978-1-63628-280-0

The Cardinals

Amy Speace

Poetry · 978-1-63628-268-2

Walking Wheel

Molly Fisk

Poetry · 978-1-63628-459-0

A Punishing Breed

DC Frost

Fiction · 978-1-93909-617-3

The re in Refuge

Adrianne Kalfopoulou

Nonfiction · 978-1-63628-276-3

Four Days in Algeria

Clarence Major

Poetry · 978-1-63628-178-0

Eat Less Water

Florescia Ramirez

Nonfiction · 978-1-59709-039-1

RED HEN PRESS

Celebrating 30 Years

Frankfurt 2025

ABOUT RED HEN PRESS

Based in Pasadena, California, Red Hen Press is an independent, nonprofit literary publisher of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. Red Hen is committed to publishing works of literary excellence, fostering diversity, and promoting literacy. We seek a community of readers and writers who are actively engaged in the essential human practice known as literature.

PUBLISHER &
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Kate Gale

kate@redhen.org

RIGHTS COORDINATOR

Ava Morgan

ava.morgan@redhen.org

www.redhen.org

Scan here for our full
Foreign Rights Catalogue:

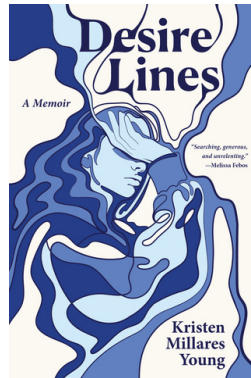

www.redhen.org

Desire Lines by Kristen Millares Young | A Memoir
Fall 2026 | 978-1-63628-500-9

Award-winning Kristen Millares Young seeks possibilities for women's liberation amid the ongoing erosion of our human rights. Tracing her matrilineage from Spain to Cuba while uncovering the remnants of a pagan mother goddess cult, Millares Young centers her own body as a site of resistance and making. Audio rights available!

Genres: Feminism, Latina, Memoir-in-Essays

The Kitchen Activist by Florencia Ramirez | Food Writing
Fall 2026 | 978-1-63628-494-1

Florencia Ramirez guides readers to harness the power of our home kitchens to transform the health and well-being of our shared natural world. This easy to use how-to guide, with visual examples offers simple action steps to tackle the most pressing environmental issues in the comfort of our homes. Audio and film/TV rights available!

Genres: Culinary Nonfiction, Environmental Issues

Fallout by Liz Kay | A Novel
Fall 2026 | 978-1-63628-497-2

For the military families who live in Benjamin Franklin Village, family life isn't just family life, but a vital front in the Cold War. It's a patriotic act, a performance of the American Way. Fallout is an addictive and enthralling novel that follows three military families as the dangers and secrets within their homes rival those without.

Genres: Historical Fiction, Literary Fiction, Domestic Fiction

Yellow by Amy Pence | A Novel
March 24, 2026 | 978-1-63628-476-7

It's 1973 when 12-year-old Z discovers an unclassified slime mold growing in her Louisiana backyard. Something compels her deep coherence with this magical creature—until an incident with a serial killer at the lake disrupts their connection. A multi-threaded novel, Yellow weaves fact, physics, space exploration, and philosophy to create a transcendent reading experience. Audio rights available!

Genres: Sci Fi, Historical Fiction, Mystery, LGBTQ+

Morning Leaves by Laing F. Rikkers | Poetry & Art
March 17, 2026 | 978-1-93909-472-9

A radiant fusion of poetry and nature art, Morning Leaves: Cultivating a Life of Beauty, Meaning, and Joy is a tender, soul-stirring meditation on grief, healing, and the quiet joy of rediscovering beauty one morning at a time. Morning Leaves is the perfect gift book or self-purchase. Artwork by Kelly Leahy Radding. Audio and film/TV rights available!

Genres: Nature, Grief and Loss Narrative, Art

Taxi Dancer by Marivi Soliven | A Novel
Fall 2026 | 978-1-63628-515-3

In Depression-era California, Filipino farm workers earned a dollar a day, spent a dime a dance, and paid for love with murder. Inspired by true events in San Diego's Stingaree district. Audio and film/TV rights available!

Genres: Thriller, Noir, Historical Fiction, Romance

