MIĘTA

RIGHTS CATALOGUE
Autumn 2026

HIGHLIGHTS

HIGHLIGHTS 2
FANTASY 12
THRILLER / CRIME 20
FICTION 23
CHILDREN'S – HIGHLIGHTS 32
MIDDLE GRADE 39
YA 46
BACKLIST HIGHLIGHTS 49

Photo ©Wojtek Biały

Katarzyna Berenika Miszczuk

is a bestselling author, screenwriter, and co-founder of MIĘTA PUBLISHING, as well as a busy young mum. She wrote her first novel Wilk at fifteen and has since published dozens of works across fantasy, sci-fi, crime, and general fiction. Her acclaimed Fern Flower series won multiple Lubimyczytac.pl Reader's Choice Awards, and her thriller Druga Szansa was adapted into the hit Netflix series Open your Eyes. Known for blending imaginative worlds with sharp humor, Miszczuk continues to shape Polish pop literature for readers of all ages.

Original title: Szeptucha

March 2023 – 432 pages

For fans of The Very Secret Society of Irregular Witches by Sangu Mandanna and Circe by Madeline Miller

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Movie rights: Option sold

READ SAMPLE & SYNOPSIS

Katarzyna Berenika Miszczuk

The Healer

Fern Flower Series | VOLUME 1

Over 550.000 copies sold of the whole series!

You may not believe in the Slavic gods, but they believe in you!

Gosia sanctimoniously believes in the power of antibiotics and is irrationally terrified of ticks. After graduating from medical school, she reluctantly begins a mandatory internship with the village healer, Baba Yaga. She soon learns firsthand that a glass and an eye are sometimes not enough. Along the way, she meets the handsome apprentice of the local priest. They say love can be found anywhere – even in a forest full of ticks.

Why this book?

- Slavic folklore with modern edge
- A strong, unconventional female lead
- The Best Novel of the Year 2016 Award in the Fantasy Literature Category – Lubimyczytac.pl Choice Awards

In the series:

Photo ©Malwina Musialska

Martyna Raduchowska

a bestselling Polish author of fantasy and science fiction, with academic backgrounds in Psychology, Criminology, Neurocognitive Science, and Investigative Psychology. She is best known for the Ida Brzezińska – Shaman of the Dead series and the cyberpunk duology Black Lights. Her novel Mai's Tears won the Quasar Award (2016), while Spectrum was named Book of the Year (2018) by Lubimyczytac.pl and Esensja magazine, and was nominated for the Żuławski and Zajdel literary awards.

Original title:
Szamanka od umarlaków

Romantasy

August 2024 – 480 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Why this book?

- Harriet the Spy meets Wednesday
- A sharp, funny, and ghost-filled coming-of-age story
- Unique humor and Dark Academia setting

READ SAMPLE & SYNOPSIS

Martyna Raduchowska

The Shaman of the Dead

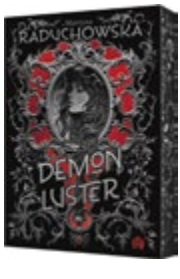
The Shaman of the Dead series | VOLUME 1

Over 40.000 copies sold of the whole series

Ida Brzezińska has Plans with a capital P. Unfortunately, she also has Bad Luck – again with capital B and L.

Her fate as the heir to a multi-generational magical family seems sealed, especially since it's only a matter of time before anyone discovers that she can see ghosts. And then, goodbye freedom! Hello, medium training under her bossy aunt!
Ida plans to contact the dead only over her own dead body. So, when she stands her ground and keeps her supernatural gift a secret, she begins an ordinary student life, half hoping and half deluding herself that her troubles are finally over.
But, in fact, this is only the Beginning. With a capital B!

In the series:



The Demon of Mirrors

The False Bard

The Sowers of Nightmares

The author is currently working on volume 5 – The Tree of Souls.

Photo © Wojtek Biały

Marta Kisiel

a writer and translator. She made her debut in 2006 in the online magazine Fahrenheit with the short story Disqualification Conversation. She is a member of the Harda Horda group – Fantastic Women Writers of Poland – as well as the Literary Union.

She is the author of the acclaimed For Life or Bugaboo series, as well as a cozy crime series featuring Tereska Trawny. Her novels have received numerous awards, including the Janusz A. Zajdel Award, the IBBY–Asahi Reading Promotion Award, the Ferdynand the Great Award, and Book of the Year from the Lubimyczytac.pl portal.

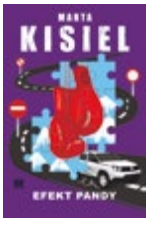
Original title:
Dywan z wkładką

Cosy Crime

May 2023 – 320 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

In the series:



The Panda Effect

Always Something

READ SAMPLE

Marta Kisiel

The Tragic Carpet

Tereska Trawny series | Volume 1

Over 35.000 copies sold

Meet Tereska Trawny – a women of fresh and blood...

Jogging with your mother-in-law may be more dangerous than it looks.

After a move that was anything but planned, Tereska tries to embrace the perks of a peaceful life in the countryside. Unfortunately, her brief idyll comes to an abrupt end with the unexpected arrival of Mira – her energetic and enthusiastically uninvited mother-in-law.

One morning, during what was supposed to be a wholesome jog, the unlikely duo stumbles upon a peculiar sight in the nearby woods: a beetroot-colored rug, complete with the shape of a very dead neighbor.

The real snag? All signs point suspiciously toward Andrew Trawny: beloved son, husband, father... and now, potential suspect.

Why this book?

- Quirky humor, unlikely sleuthing duo
- Charming rural setting
- The Thursday Murder Club by Richard Osman meets Dial A for Aunties by Jesse Q. Sutanto

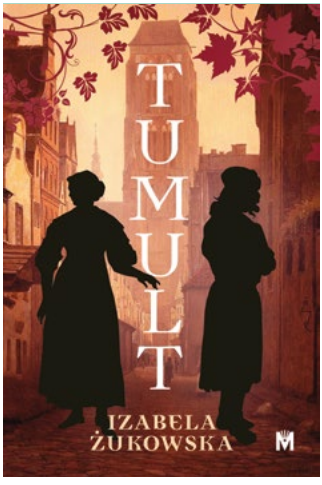
Photo © Izabela Żukowska

Izabela Żukowska

a musicologist and sociologist by training, she works as a music journalist. She is the author of retro crime novels, historical and social fiction, and radio plays. In her free time, she enjoys Mozart and pre war popular music. She loves her hometown of Gdańsk and adores cats.



Original title:
Tumult

Historical Fiction

September 2026 –
256 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Izabela Żukowska

Tumult

A city on the edge of revolt. A forbidden love torn apart. A murder that could ignite a revolution.

In 1525 Gdańsk, a fiery preacher and his silent companion arrive just as the Gdańsk Tumult erupts, pitting patricians against commoners and igniting the Reformation. When the scandalous Ferber–Pilemann feud blocks a marriage and ends in bloodshed, the newcomers are drawn into a web of vengeance, power, and rebellion – rooted in real events still traceable in Gdańsk today.

READ SAMPLE

Why this book?

- Based on a true events
- Ambition, faith, desire, and revenge collide in a city fighting for its identity
- A vivid, atmospheric city portrait
- For fans of Ken Follett's The Pillars of the Earth, Florian Illies 1913 and Tidelands by Philippa Gregory

Photo © Pola Górska-Rutkowska

Tomasz Betcher

professional educator who can't sit still. Passionate about cities that begin with the letter G: born in Grudziądz, long connected to Gdynia, and now anchored in Gdansk. A fiction author known for his socially and historically themed novels. His debut, Whenever You Are, was published in 2019. He is also a proud recipient of the Cultural Scholarship of the City of Gdansk.

Original title:
Ognie lotne

January 2026 – 448 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Why this book?

- Emotionally rich, character-driven narrative
- Explores trauma, healing and second chances through a dual perspective
- Atmospheric setting and symbolic use of fire as metaphor
- For fans of Firefly Lane by K. Hannah

Tomasz Betcher

Drifting Embers

A fire can be extinguished. But the embers in our hearts never die.

Damian and Karolina – former residents of an orphanage whose lives took them down completely different paths. Although they come from different worlds, they've always been connected by something difficult to name – and even harder to silence. Their paths diverged many times, only to cross again in adulthood.
Years later, they meet in their hometown of Tczew. He's a firefighter, ready to battle the elements but not always his own demons. She's a woman emerging from yet another painful relationship, trying to heal wounds she's carried in her heart for far too long.
Will they manage to stay together this time?

Drifting Embers* is a story of past traumas, complicated relationships, and a that – despite everything – refuses to die.

Further titles:

The Whisperer

The Healer

Whenever You Are

READ SAMPLE

FANTASY

Original title:
Proces

Fantasy

August 2026 – 368 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

READ SAMPLE

Katarzyna Wierzbicka – an award-winning author of children's and fantasy fiction. Her works include Elf for Special Tasks and Nobody Sees Elephants, as well as the acclaimed adult fantasy trilogy Between Worlds.
A kindergarten teacher and mother of three, she finds inspiration in everyday magic and mischievous demons.

Katarzyna Wierzbicka

The Trial

A dark historical fantasy set in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth, where magic fuels conflict and the greatest evil may come from within.

In a world where history collides with sorcery and human vices open the gates to demons, three destinies become dangerously entwined. Konstancja Sawicka, a licensed witch; Jerzy, her ambitious and ruthless brother; and Franciszek Brodzki, a Jesuit scholar, each pursue their own vision of justice, power, or salvation. All are willing to sacrifice more than they should. Perhaps even their souls.

Set against the turmoil of the Bar Confederation and inspired by the Doruchów Witch Trial, The Trial follows characters fighting for the triumph of good in a world steeped in brutality, darkness, and magic. But when the true nature of evil is revealed, they must confront the most terrifying truth of all: the darkness they fear may already be inside them.

Why this book?

- Historical fantasy with real political stakes: Bar Confederation + Doruchów witch trial reimagined through dark magic
- Three morally complex protagonists whose loyalties clash in a world where faith, power, and sorcery collide.
- Dark, atmospheric magic system rooted in Slavic beliefs, ecclesiastical lore, and human corruption
- Perfect for fans of Babel by R.F. Kuang and The Manningtree Witches by A. K. Blakemore

Original title:
Impostorium

Dystopia

July 2026 – 352 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

In the series:

Inspectorium

Marek Zychla

Impostorium

Inspectorium series | VOLUME 2

When the system crushes people, man becomes a wolf to man.

Four years after her escape, Katarzyna is dragged into a brutal, high-stakes combat spectacle. Refusal is impossible: her child is held hostage.

In the sprawling megacity of Poznań, hybrid talent Anna rises fast, guided by the mysterious Voice. But in a city built on deals, betrayals, and hidden agendas, every alliance is fragile – and every friend may be an enemy in disguise.

A tense, character-driven dystopia about power, survival, and the price of freedom.

Why this book?

- Themes: control vs. care, propaganda, body autonomy, found family, post-traumatic resilience.
- Dystopia that allows hope: Ends not in ashes but in coalition, reform, and a believable pathway to coexistence.
- Hunger Games meets Station Eleven

Marek Zychla – works as an administrator and supervisor for people with disabilities at the KCAT Art & Study Centre in Callan, County Kilkenny, Ireland.

He writes novels for children, young adults, and adults, although he is primarily associated with horror literature. However, Mark Zychla's books blend multiple literary genres into a cohesive whole.

Original title:
Wurdalak

Fantasy

September 2026 –
336 pages

Age: 16+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

In the series:

The Black Pond

Vila

Robert Ziębiński

Vourdalak

Black Pond series I VOLUME 3

In Black Pond, nothing is ever quite what it seems. When the town's old darkness resurfaces, a group of teenagers is once again forced to confront what the adults refuse – or are too afraid – to see.

After years of silence, Kamil returns to writing… and to the past he tried to bury. Memories of the summer of 2018, of friends, of Black Pond – and of the nightmare that came back then and never truly went dormant. Now something is spreading again: sprouting in school corridors, seeping into family homes, slipping into dreams. Its presence hangs over everything, like the haunting echo of Nick Drake's Pink Moon threading through the story.

This is a tale of coming of age in the shadow of terror, and of how every act of bravery leaves a scar.

Why this book?

- Stranger Things atmosphere
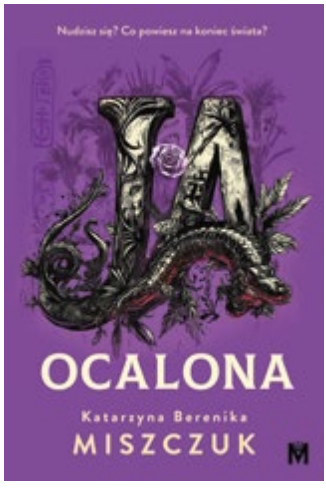
- Coming of age novel
- Friendship, family secrets
- Slavic legends

Robert Ziębiński – writer, screenwriter and journalist, formerly editor-in-chief of Playboy and culture editor at Newsweek Polska. Author of acclaimed books on Stephen King and bestselling thrillers (Fury, Lockdown, Toy, Devil) and horror (The Day of the Truant). Co-author of Chronicles of Crime. His work has appeared in Tygodnik Powszechny, Gazeta Wyborcza, Polityka, and more. When not writing, he reads, studies directing, and walks his dog.



Original title:
Ja, ocalona

Urban Fantasy

October 2026 – 512 pages

Good Omens by Neil Gaiman & Terry Pratchett meets The Invisible Life of Addie LaRue by V.E. Schwab

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Katarzyna Berenika Miszczuk

I, She-Saved

Angels & Devils series | VOLUME 4

Over 60.000 paper copies sold of the whole series

Are you planning a peaceful afterlife? But what if... it suddenly stopped existing?

Ten years after escaping Tartarus, I lose Grace, break up with Betleth, and end up running Top Angel. Meanwhile, Lucifer is preparing an accelerated Apocalypse, Azazel walks free from prison, and a suspicious tree begins to grow in the cherub's garden. In the afterlife, boredom simply doesn't exist.

Why this book?

- For fans of Lucifer (TV series)
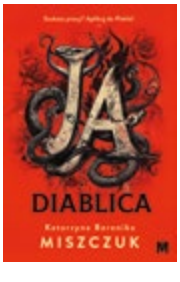
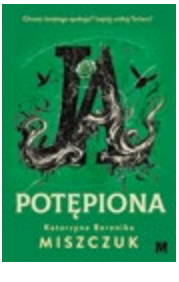
- Fresh take on the afterlife
- Sharp humor, supernatural intrigue, and a touch of devilish romance

In the series:



I, She-Devil

I, She-Angel,



I, She-Cursed

Original title:
Potwory, strachy, zmory

October 2026 – 464 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Anthology

Monsters, Boogeymen, Nightmares

A quiet rustle in the dark, an unsettling shadow on the wall, and a flash brighter than the sun – such are Slavic demons. They dance, love, tease, and seduce, but they also steal, bite, and kill. Born from gods or from those who died violently or too soon, these beings blur the line between myth and reality. Do Slavic demons truly belong only to legend?

Monsters, Boogeymen, Nightmares is a gloriously collection of Slavic folk tales that is both thrilling and enchanting.

Stories by: Sylwia Błach, Agata Kasiak, Ewelina Kasiuba, Marta Kisiel, Marta Krajewska, Katarzyna Berenika Miszczuk, Martyna Raduchowska, Aleksandra Seliga, Magdalena Świerczek-Gryboś, Magdalena Wolff.

Original title:
Kamienne twarze

Fantasy

August 2026 – 432 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

In the series:

The Oracle of Hearts

The Prophetess of Fire

The Last Name

Beata Skrzypczak

The Faces of Stone

The Stone series | VOLUME 1

An escape that costs more than a life.

A deadly disease is turning human bodies into cracked stone, and four young friends – Luna, Daniel, Tala, and Kaj – are running out of time. Their only hope lies with the Oracle, a being feared across the land for granting salvation only at a devastating price. As they cross a world rotting under violence and corruption, loyalty becomes stronger than reason, tenderness grows from shared suffering, and those marked as victims reclaim their voices, their names, and their power.

The Faces of Stone blends intimate character drama with mythic tension, offering a crossover fantasy where broken people rise not because they are unscarred, but because they refuse to let one another fall.

Why this book?

- Character-driven story wrapped in dark, atmospheric worldbuilding
- Themes: resilience, identity, and reclaiming power
- For fans of Six of Cows by Leigh Bardugo and The Raven Cycle by Maggie Stiefvater

Beata Skrzypczak – born in Nowy Sącz, she feels deeply connected to Silesia. A graduate in Spanish translation, she debuted in 2023 with El Roi. Since 2018, she's run Opowiemci – a literary platform promoting reading and author engagement. She also curates rankings and organizes events at Katowice's Książkonalia festival.

Original title:
Ostatnie tchnienie

Urban Fantasy

June 2026 – 400 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

In the series:

Infernal Heaven

The Fracture of Darkness

Karolina Ligocka

Last Breath

Nerida's Story | VOLUME 3

In the shadows of Purgatory, truth demands a sacrifice.

An angel living among humans, Narida faces her greatest trial when her friend Rimon is attacked and an uncontrollable ancient power awakens within him. To save his life, she must uncover a druidic secret and retrieve an antidote hidden in the legendary Book of the Abyss. Joined by unlikely allies, Narida ventures into Purgatory, where love, sacrifice, and truth are tested as time runs out.

Why this book?

- Mythic worldbuilding rooted in angelic lore, druidic magic, and elemental beings
- A heroine torn between celestial duty and human emotion
- Perfect for readers of paranormal romance and epic fantasy
- For fans of A Discovery of Witches by Deborah Harkness meets His Dark Materials

Karolina Ligocka – a real estate inspector by day, storyteller by passion, she writes urban fantasy infused with mystery and magic. Her debut Infernal Heaven (2024) launched the Narida's Story series and earned a Book of the Year nomination. Inspired by rock music, thrillers, and Rome's winged sculptures.

THRILLER / CRIME

Kamila Bryksy

Confusion

The worst truth is the one you don't want to face.

A twelve year old boy disappears at the Gdańsk Zoo. To find Maks, his parents must confront what they've been hiding from themselves – and what they would rather forget. In a single day, their world is turned upside down. Or perhaps nothing was ever truly in its right place.

Who knows where Maks is? Who is telling the truth, and who is lying? And who is pulling the strings behind all the confusion?

Why this book?

- A missing child and the family secrets
- A single-day narrative with escalating tension
- A tightly constructed, emotionally charged story exploring the darkest corners of parenthood and the lies we tell ourselves.
- Perfect for fans of Broadchurch and The Couple Next Door by Shari Lapena

Original title: Zamęt

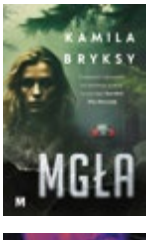
Thriller

June 2026 – 320 pages

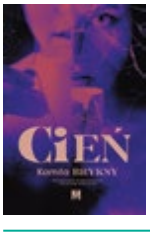
Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Further titles:

The Scratch



The Fog



The Shadow

Kamila Bryksy – trained neurologist and educator, now professionally engaged in the e-commerce industry. A passionate lover of nature tea, apple pie and travel. She is the author of the thrillers Owls and Flashes, set in Podlasie. She makes her debut at Mieta Publishing with the gripping thriller Shadow (2023).

Photo © Wojtek Biały

Małgorzata Starosta

Guilty as Wine

Agata Śródka series | VOLUME 1

Where the wine is exquisite and the motives are deadly.

Agata Śródka, a celebrity chef, leaves Poznań – along with her unfaithful husband and her old life – to open the hotel of her dreams in the sleepy town of Gościniec. But someone clearly doesn't want her there, and they make that point with a santoku knife plunged straight into Claude. When dessert is over and it's time to serve suspects instead of soufflés, Agata takes the investigation into her perfectly manicured hands. After all, no one slices through a mystery better than a head chef.

Original title: Wina wina

Cosy Crime

December 2026 –
352 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Why this book?

- For fans of The Thursday Murder Club by Richard Osman and The Vineyard Victims by E. Crosby.
- Crime comedy at it's best

Małgorzata Starosta is a Wrocław-born author known for her witty crime comedies and engaging storytelling. A Literature graduate with a passion for Ethnology, she blends love for Wrocław and Podlasie into her work. Championing the ironic crime genre, she has published seven warmly received novels, ranging from family dramas to amateur sleuth adventures. Her favorite color is green – though pink is growing on her.

FICTION

Original title: Wygnaniec

Romantasy

May 2026 – 480 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Katarzyna Berenika Miszczuk

The Exiled Prince

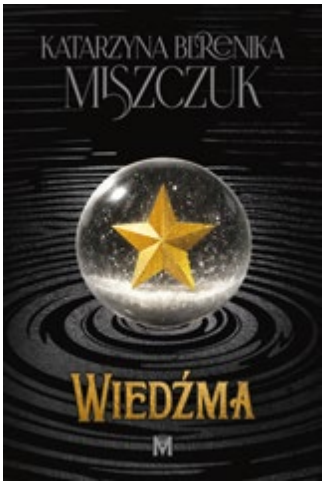
Black surface duology I VOLUME 1

Do you dream of your life turning into a fairy tale? And what if it turned out to be one of the Grimm brothers' darker ones?

Anka is a nurse with no husband, no boyfriend, not even a cat. She works nonstop and secretly longs for adventure. Instead, she must head to the countryside to care for her ailing grandfather and convince him to move to the Jesienny Listeczek retirement home.

But things take a strange turn when Anka discovers a mysterious trinket in the basement – and then stumbles upon an unconscious, naked man pretending to be dead in the middle of the vegetable garden. Moments later, someone shoots at her, and the naked stranger calmly announces that he is a prince who needs her help to recover a stolen star from his world.

Is he a delusional fugitive? Or is this the great adventure Anka has been waiting for? And why does the fairy tale prince warn her: "Don't believe what you hear or see. Don't accept anything given to you for free. And under no circumstances reveal your real name to anyone"?



Original title:
Wiedźma

Romantasy

November 2026 –
480 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Katarzyna Berenika Miszczuk

The Hidden Witch

Black surface duology I VOLUME 2

Nothing in Dusibaba stays buried for long – not even the past she thought she'd escaped. When Anka returns to the village, she expects answers – not another naked stranger, a missing scepter, or a lake whose black surface hides a new threat. As Celtic myths tighten their grip, Anka must face the danger she once ran from... and the man she never stopped thinking about. This time, the fairy tale is darker, the stakes higher, and survival is no longer guaranteed.

Why this book?

- New series from the bestselling author
- Perfect for fans of quirky, genre-blending fiction
- The Dead Romantics meets The Flatshare vibes

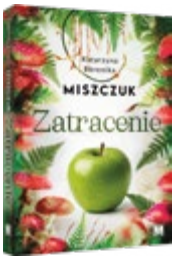
Further titles:

Temptation



Oblivion

Original title:
Pomyśl życzenie

Women's Fiction

May 2026 – 352 pages

For readers of The Summer of Second Chances by K.L. Walther and The Little French Bistro by Nina George.

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Anna Podsiadło

Make a Wish

Maybe I should just ditch everything and go to... Mazury!

After leaving her unfaithful partner, Agata retreats to a farmstay in Mazury, hoping for peace. The slow rhythm of country life soothes her – until she meets Jurand, a withdrawn man with a past that won't let him go. As their connection deepens, Agata is pulled into the unspoken stories that have shaped his family for years and begins to wonder whether some wishes are meant to be voiced after all.

Make a Wish is an uplifting, emotionally rich novel about starting over, trusting yourself again, and discovering that sometimes the bravest thing you can do is finally say what your heart has been holding back.

Why this book?

- Atmospheric landscapes and strong community storytelling
- Uplifting and emotionally rich
- Perfect for book clubs

Further titles:

Awaking

Anna Podsiadło – comes from Sosnowiec and proudly calls herself a Zagłębian – though she can speaks in Silesian too. A passionate music lover (especially live!), she can't work in silence and finds inspiration in everyday life. She believes that the best stories are written by life itself. When not writing, she enjoys fitness, good food and spending time with her family.

Original title:
Nie cudzołóż

Women's Fiction

June 2026 – 270 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Anka Ryźlak, Marcin Popczyński

You should not commit adultery

Love or hate? That is the question...

Karolina cuts off an anti abortion van on one of Warsaw's main thoroughfares. Jan, on his way to the right wing newsroom where he works, witnesses the incident. He decides to film the girl arguing with the driver and post the video online to impress his bosses. But his sudden infatuation with Karolina quickly fills him with remorse.

Fate brings them face to face just one day later. Destiny, after all, refuses to be stopped...

Why this book?

- Enemies-to lovers, meet-cute
- Emotional, character-driven storytelling
- Two protagonists from opposite ideological worlds
- For fans of The Hating Game by Sally Thorne

Anka Ryźlak – journalist and acclaimed audiobook narrator. Former Trójka reporter and long time publishing editor of 180+ books. Author of children's series and the voice behind major podcasts and audio productions; nominated for Best Narrator in Best Audio 2025.

Marcin Popczyński – Oświęcim-born actor and WSFoto graduate, he has built a distinguished career as an award winning audiobook narrator. He debuted as a writer with the political fiction audio novel Wniebowzięcie. His work has earned several Empik Bestseller awards and nominations for Best Narrator in the Best Audio 2025 and Złote Głosy 2025 polls.

Original title: Dobranoc

Women's Fiction

May 2026 – 400 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Joanna Kordula

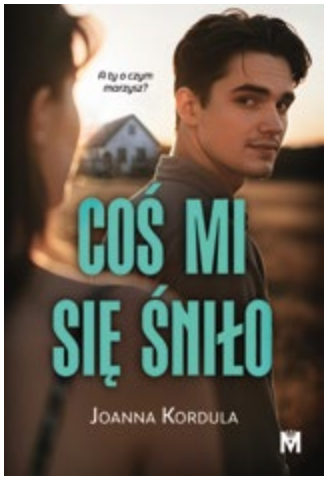
Good night

VOLUME 1 of a Trilogy

One confession can change everything

Basia, Kamil, and Michał spend every free moment together. Over time, their innocent childhood friendship deepens into love – though one of them is destined to get hurt. Heartbreak leads to a tragedy that shatters their bond and sends each of them down a different path.

Years later, their lives cross again. Just when it seems that everything is lost, they discover that nothing is truly over – and that fate still has a few surprises waiting for them.



Original title:
Coś mi się śniło

October 2026 – 320 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Joanna Kordula

I Had A Dream

VOLUME 2 of a Trilogy

Some bonds never end – and some begin exactly when you need them.

After losing his closest friend, Kamil's world collapses. As he slowly rebuilds, he embarks on a journey that uncovers long hidden truths and reveals how deeply Michał's presence still lingers – in the people Kamil meets, in the choices he makes, and in the future waiting for him. A tender, uplifting novel about grief, resilience, and the unexpected ways love enters a life already marked by loss.

Magdalena Krauze

Lost Love

A love torn apart. A chance that won't come twice.

Majka and Michał were once inseparable, until his mother tore them apart and he left for London. Years later, Majka is stuck in a loveless relationship, and the now divorced Michał returns to Poland. Their unexpected reunion brings the past rushing back – along with a love that never truly disappeared. A powerful story about manipulation, second chances, and the courage to reclaim one's own happiness.

Original title:
Utraocona miłość

Women's Fiction

June 2026 – 320 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Why this book?

- A deeply emotional second chance romance
- Universal themes of love, control, and self determination

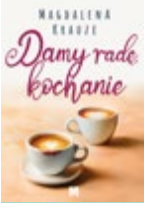
Magdalena Krauze – is a contemporary fiction author whose writing journey began in primary school and led to her publishing debut in 2019. She writes heartfelt contemporary fiction for women, celebrating love, resilience, and second chances. A romantic at heart, she lives in Poland's Opole region with her husband and daughter.

Further titles:

The Way We Talk

I've Been Waiting For You

Trust Me Once More



Together, We've Got This

I'll Never Marry You

Original title: Biała Beza

Family Saga

September 2026 – 384 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Further titles:

The Road to Home

The Stone Rose

The Porcelain Heart

Agnieszka Litorowicz-Siegert

White Meringue

In this powerful multigenerational novel, four women from one family – each shaped by a different era – find their lives bound by a legacy that refuses to disappear.

In postwar Poland, Winta struggles to build a home in a town still redefining itself. In the 1970s, Danka fights for an unconventional love in a world ruled by prejudice. Decades later, Laura hides a silence that threatens to break her. Now Ami, the youngest, must decide whether to continue the family's inheritance – the wedding salon White Meringue – or let it end.

A moving saga about resilience, womanhood, and the invisible thread that connects us across generations.

Why this book?

- A sweeping family saga spanning postwar Poland to the present day
- Themes: resilience, womanhood, and intergenerational connection
- A legacy that binds generation, rich historical context
- For fans of The Braid by Laetitia Colombiani, Die Tuchvilla by Anne Jacobs or The Lions of Sicily by Stefania Auci

Agnieszka Litorowicz-Siegert – a journalist and novelist with over two decades of storytelling experience, she is known for her sensitive portrayals of complex relationships and identity published in "Twój Styl" magazine. Author of Carousel and the Olszany series, her novels often draw on the rich postwar history of her native West Pomerania. She lives with her family, two cats, and a Pomeranian dog – and remains a devoted lover of jazz, design, and everyday optimism.

Original title:
Wieszczka

November 2026 –
368 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Tomasz Betcher

The Prophetess

Every prophecy comes at a price – and Bożena Jóźwiak is about to pay the highest. Growing up in a quiet Beskid Niski village, she hides an extraordinary secret: she can see the future. As her visions sharpen, fate tightens around her. When she falls for a young Romani man, she doesn't yet know he appears in her most terrifying prophecy. To save him, Bożena must confront the vision she fears and make a choice that could rewrite both their destinies.

Why this book?

- Atmospheric rural setting with cross-cultural tension
- Emotionally driven, a heroine torn between destiny and desire
- For fans of The Light Between Oceans by M.L. Stedman and The Rules of Magic by Alice Hoffman

Tomasz Betcher – professional educator who can't sit still. Passionate about cities that begin with the letter G: born in Grudziądz, long connected to Gdynia, and now anchored in Gdansk. A fiction author known for his socially and historically themed novels. His debut, Whenever You Are, was published in 2019. He is also a proud recipient of the Cultural Scholarship of the City of Gdansk.

Further titles:

The Healer

Drifting Embers

The Whisperer

Whenever You Are

CHILDREN'S – HIGHLIGHTS

Original title:
Małe Licho i tajemnica Niebożątka

Illustrations: Agnieszka Wajda

March 2026 – 208 pages

Color illustrations

Age: 8+

Ferdynand The Great Award

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

READ SAMPLE

Marta Kisiel

Bugaboo and the Secret of Godling

Bugaboo series | VOLUME 1

Over 66.000 copies sold of the whole series

In an old, mysterious house in the middle of nowhere, behind a tall fence, lives a boy named Bożek – also known as the Bugaboo – who is never truly alone. Apart from the old treasure chest and the coolest mom, he has a real and most loyal guardian angel... and a monster under his bed, who keeps stealing his slippers. But one day, Bożek must finally leave his extraordinary home and discover the world that lies on the other side of the fence. A world without the rustle of angel wings or the reassuring grasp of monstrous tentacles. Is he ready for it? And perhaps even more importantly – is the world ready for Bożek and the great secret he carries?

Bugaboo and the Secret of Godling* is both amusing and terrifying. It shows you that being different is not as bad as you'd think, as long as you always remain yourself.

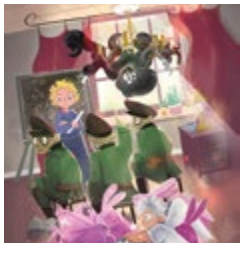
Why this book?

- Book for readers of all ages
- Awarded, beloved and bestselling series
- A unique style – slightly funny, a touch spooky, and completely heartfelt



Original title:
Małe Licho i anioł z kamienia

Illustrations: Agnieszka Wajda

May 2026 – 248 pages

Color illustrations

Age: 8+

IBBY Literary Award for Fiction 2019

Janusz A. Zajdel Award Nominee for Novel (2020)

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Marta Kisiel

Bugaboo and the Stone Angel

Bugaboo series | VOLUME 2

Over 66.000 copies sold of the whole series

Bożek's first winter break is supposed to be amazing – until a chickenpox outbreak ruins his plans. Packed with his snowsuit, long johns, and loyal Gucio, he heads to his family's forest house, where snow, the world's coolest aunt, and a goat playing cymbals await. But when Tsadkiel shows up, Bożek's perfect winter is thrown into hilarious chaos.

Bugaboo and the Stone Angel* is a second volume of the beloved and bestselling series.

Why this book?

- Book for readers of all ages
- Awarded, beloved and bestselling series
- Unique style – Little bit funny, a little bit spooky, and wholly heartfelt

Original title:
Małe Licho i lato z diabłem

Illustrations: Agnieszka Wajda

July 2026 – 272 pages

Color illustrations

Age: 8+

A Book of the Year – Lubimyczytac.pl (2020)

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Marta Kisiel

Bugaboo and the Summer with the Devil

Bugaboo series | VOLUME 3

Over 66.000 copies sold of the whole series

Summer is made for real adventure – and Bożek and Bugaboo are ready for it. Off to Aunt Oda's house, they plan to lounge, devour mountains of strawberries, and uncover the answers to life's biggest mysteries: what courage really looks like, how to handle enemies and storms, what secrets the forest is hiding, and precisely how many marshmallows it takes to stick an angel and a devil together.

Bugaboo and the Summer with the Devil* is a third volume of the beloved and bestselling series.

Why this book?

- Book for readers of all ages
- Awarded, beloved and bestselling series
- A unique style – slightly funny, a touch spooky, and completely heartfelt

Original title:
Trupia Główka #1. Zapadły pałac

Illustrations:
Joanna Kencka

September 2025 – 248 pages

Age: 14+

Żółta Ciżemka Awarad Nominee (2026)

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children by Ransom Riggs meets Coraline by Neil Gaiman

READ SAMPLE

Marta Kisiel

The Ramshackle Palace

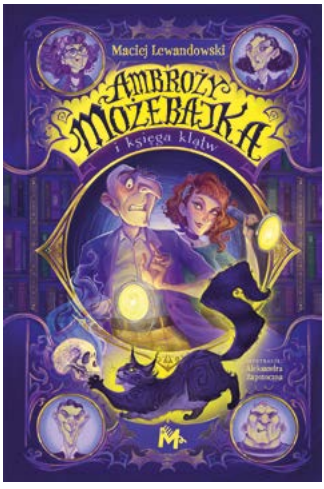
The Death's Head series

A school camp like no other – and one you'll never forget.

Emka Jaroszewska didn't get into high school. Twice. Her final shot? A mysterious academy offering one last chance – an exclusive five-day recruitment camp deep in the woods. At first, it seems like her luck is finally turning around. But just as she's about to arrive, her mother vanishes without a trace. The car disappears. Her phone dies. Time itself seems to stall. Suddenly, Emka find herself stranded in a forest with strange mix of teenagers (and one oddly calm ten-year-old), with nothing but a crumbling palace looming over them. If you ignore the lethal game of chicken, girls turning into lambs, frogs that could swallow you whole, and a string of other impossible horrors – you might say it's just an ordinary school trip.

Why this book?

- A modern Grimm and folk tales for TikTok generation
- Dark Academia with twist
- Eerie, absurd, emotionally raw
- Relatable underdog heroine



Maciej Lewandowski

Ambrose Yarnsworth and the Book of Curses

Ambrose Yarnsworth series | VOLUME 1

Original title:
Ambroży Możebajka i księga klątw

Illustrations:
Aleksandra Zapotoczna

November 2026 –
344 pages

Age: 10+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

HIGHLIGHT · HIGHLIGHT · HIGHLIGHT

READ SAMPLE

In the Little Dunes, even a quiet morning can go spectacularly wrong. Ambrose Yarnsworth – an unheroic, coffee-loving, self-taught wizard – would much rather stay in his garden. But when his demonic cat Balthazar drags home a mysterious object, Ambrose is pulled into a chase involving a talking skull, a forgotten library, and a legendary Curse Book that should never be opened.

To save his town, Ambrose must face ancient secrets, scheming cats, and his own very questionable courage.

A warm, witty adventure full of magic, mischief, and book-loving chaos. Welcome to the Little Dunes – a place where books bite, cats scheme, and curses are shelved for a reason.

Why this book?

- Adventure-driven fantasy. Perfect for fans of Which Witch? by Eva Ibbotson and Nevermoor by Jessica Townsend
- Unforgettable characters: Talking skull, demonic cat, bookish wizard
- Themes: Courage, friendship and self-acceptance

Maciej Lewandowski – an avid Warhammer, Stephen King, Neil Gaiman, barker and Lovecraft fan. Graduate of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Torun. He's a winner of the Nautilus Award 2012 for the short story. His debut, Tangled, was published in 2016. His next novel, The Shadows of New Orleans (2019) was published in audiobook form in the Czech market.

MIDDLE GRADE

Original title: Pirania duszy

Illustrations: Paulina Walachowska

March 2025 – 344 pages

Age: 10+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Klaudia Zacharska – writes imaginative, genre-bending horror with no mercy for her characters – though in real life, she's a cheerful optimist who loves Disney films, twisty thrillers, and irreverent humor. Her debut Cantata appeared in 2021, followed by several acclaimed titles.

Klaudia Zacharska

Piranha's Soul

The Lanterns series I VOLUME 1

Sepia may seem dull, but it hides dark secrets. Three friends – fiery Pola, clever River, and shy, magical Maja – form the Lanterns, a trio bound by friendship and mystery. When a terrifying curse called Piranha's Soul strikes one of them, the girls must race against time to uncover the truth. As soulless puppets haunt their town and more victims emerge, the Lanterns face a chilling challenge. A gripping tale of magic, courage, and the power of friendship.

Why this book?

- Mystery-driven fantasy. Perfect for fans of City Spies by James Ponti
- Character driven: Feisty, clever, and shy – each friend brings unique strengths to the trio
- Fast-paced action wrapped in emotional stakes and magical intrigue

Original title:
Ukradzione oczy

Illustrations:
Paulina Walachowska

November 2025 – 344 pages

Age: 10+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Klaudia Zacharska

Stolen Eyes

The Lanterns series | VOLUME 2

Trouble is back in Sepia – and this time, it's watching.

After Pola, River, and Maya break the Piranha's Soul curse, things should settle down. But nothing in Sepia ever stays quiet for long.
A furious sorcerer is out for revenge, and his spies are already on the move. He's hunting one thing: the magical Lantern. But which friend is hiding it?

To uncover the truth, he unleashes a monster with a thousand eyes. And that's just the beginning. Now the trio must dodge danger, outsmart creepy creatures, and protect their secrets – before the shadows catch up to them. Three friends. One monster. And a town full of mysteries waiting to be solved.

Adventure calls. Are they ready?

Why this book?

- Mystery-driven fantasy. Perfect for fans of City Spies by James Ponti
- Character driven: Feisty, clever, and shy – each friend brings unique strengths to the trio
- Fast-paced action wrapped in emotional stakes and magical intrigue

Original title:
Śpiew jaskółki

Illustrations: Paulina Walachowska

August 2026 – 352 pages

Age: 10+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Klaudia Zacharska

The Song of the Swallow

The Lanterns series I VOLUME 3

As dark magic rises, the Lanterns face their most dangerous curse yet – one that will test their courage, their friendship, and every spark of magic they hold.

Dark magic stirs again in Sepia. As shadows tighten around the town, Pola, River, and Maja uncover hidden mysteries, new powers, and a curse more dangerous than ever. This summer will test their courage, their friendship, and every spark of magic they trust.

Why this book?

- Mystery-driven fantasy. Perfect for fans of City Spies by James Ponti
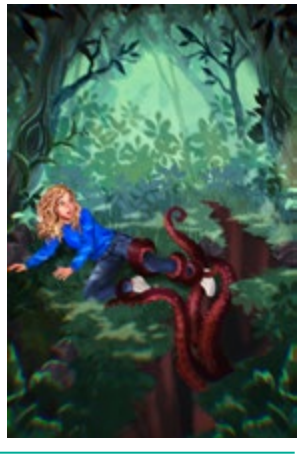
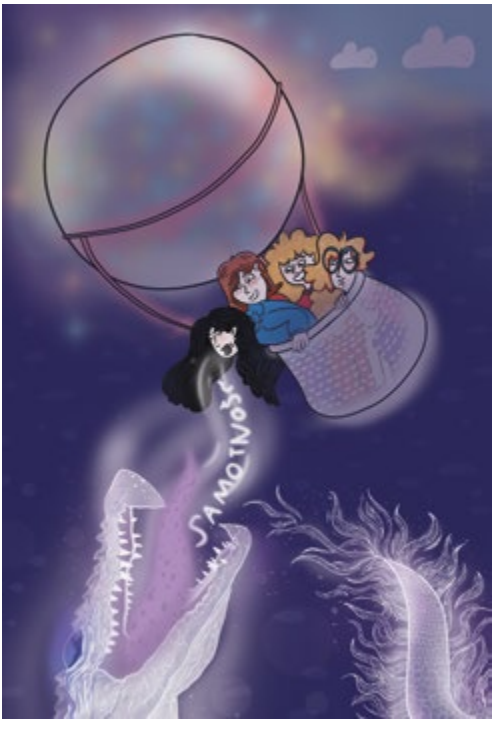
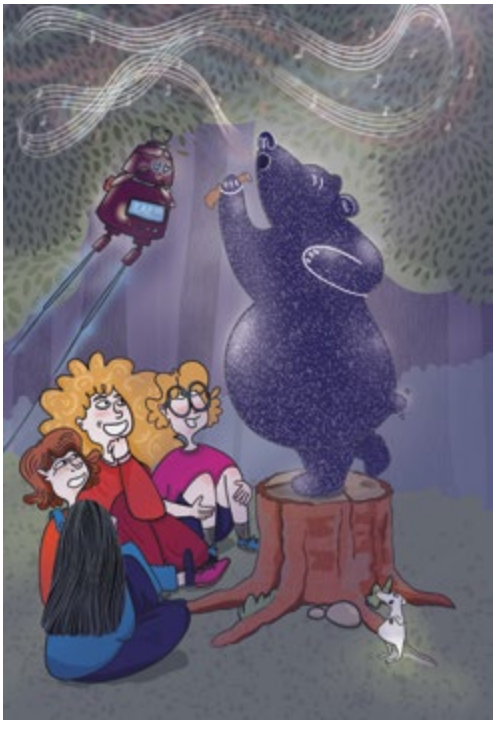
- Character driven: Feisty, clever, and shy – each friend brings unique strengths to the trio.
- Fast-paced action wrapped in emotional stakes and magical intrigue



MAMA_AKWAK
KAWKA



SAMOTNOŚĆ



Anka Ryźlak

Planet Blast!

Three kids, one accidental space jump, and a planet where every difference becomes a superpower.

When Miłka, Witek, and Klara get punished for a classroom brawl, they're sent to clean a forgotten library storeroom – only to stumble into an interplanetary tunnel that launches them onto Planet Blast, a world of talking animals and quirky tech. Guided by Bombarian Anelim and the robot iBomba5, the trio discovers that even the strangest differences can spark the strongest friendships.

Why this book?

- The Wild Robot meets Space Detectives
- STEM-friendly worldbuilding
- Themes: adventure, friendship, diversity

Original title:
Dla mnie Bomba!

Illustrations: Elka Grądziel

September 2026 –
288 pages

Color illustrations

Age: 10+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Anka Ryźlak – journalist and acclaimed audiobook narrator. Former Trójka reporter and long time publishing editor of 180+ books. Author of children's series and the voice behind major podcasts and audio productions; nominated for Best Narrator in Best Audio 2025.

Original title:
Wakacje pełne magii

Illustrations: Wioleta Herczyńska

May 2024 – 272 pages

Age: 10+

Katarzyna Wierzbicka

Magical Summer

Wizard's Daughter series | Volume 1

Over 10.000 copies sold of the series

This summer, the monsters aren't just in stories.
Magda can read minds, but must hide her gift. When Slavic demons appear at a lakeside campsite and a ruthless magic inspector circles her family, danger closes in. And when her little sister is kidnapped, Magda must face the monsters – both magical and human.

Why this book?

- Atmospheric fantasy world with Slavic-flavour
- A mind-reading heroine caught between rebellion and authority
- For fans of Nevermoor: The Trials of Morrigan Crow by Jessica Towsend and The School for Good and Evil by Soman Chainani

A Summer full of Secrets

Original title:
Lato pełne tajemnic

Volume 2

April 2025 – 272 pages

Age: 10+

With her father powerless and memory less, Magda's only ally is a demon who's suddenly keeping secrets. A boy, a hostile neighbor, and a strange forest girl all hide truths she can't read. To save her family, she must uncover the danger – and tame a tiny dog who's actually a dragon.

A Bay of Wonders

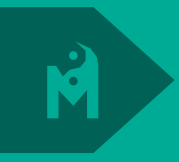
Original title:
Zatoka pełna czarów

Volume 3

April 2026 – 272 pages

Age: 10+

At the Summer School for Sparks, Magda's mind reading gift makes her a target for rebellious students. With a kikimora in the kitchen, vampires in the attic, and a demon as her teacher, surviving the term may be harder than passing her magic exam.



YA

Original title: Czasami cię pragnę

July 2026 – 400 pages

Age: 18+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Aleksandra Maciejowska

Sometimes, I Want You

Bailey thought cutting ties with her awkward childhood friend would fix everything. Years later, she returns home and discovers that Nicky — now Nick Watts — runs the hottest club in town. He's still clumsy, still chaotic… yet something in him has changed. He was her friend, then a stranger. Now he's the one person she can't seem to walk away from.

A tender, slow-burn story about second chances, emotional healing, and the kind of love that grows where you least expect it.

Why this book?

- Slow-burn, second-chance romance
- Trigger warning: drugs, depression, sexual violence in flashbacks, suicide attempt
- Every Summer After meets It Ends With Us

Original title:
Kto zabije Georgię Morgan?

February 2026 – 432 pages

Age: 14+

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Aleksandra Maciejowska

Who will kill Georgia Morgan?

Not every bride is destined for a happy ending.

London, 1925. Georgia Morgan is young, impulsive, and engaged to a man she barely knows. But someone else is planning her future – her wedding and her murder. The threats she receives, inspired by twisted fairy tales, grow darker by the day. Assigned to protect her is Paddy, a weary detective's assistant with no patience for drama and even less for brides. Yet Georgia's reckless charm and Paddy's reluctant loyalty spark something neither of them expected.
As danger closes in, Georgia must choose between a loveless marriage and a perilous escape. But in this story, happily ever after might be the most dangerous ending of all.
A gothic mystery with romantic tension, fairy tale menace, and a dash of dry wit – perfect for fans of historical thrillers and genre-bending suspense.

Why this book?

- YA crossover with adult appeal: historical setting, romantic suspense
- Dual POV dynamic: reluctant protector meets impulsive bride-to-be
- Enola Holmes meets Only murders in the building

Aleksandra Maciejowska – born in Tarnów, is a writer, performer, and host of the Humanist Babble podcast. A lifelong book and musical lover, she's appeared on stage and screen, and honed her voice through Oxford debates. Inspired by Christie, Austen, and Steinbeck, she now writes fiction and composes original music.

Further titles:

If you're talking about risk

1.3.1.4. The death won't do us part

BACKLIST HIGHLIGHTS

Marta Kisiel

READ SAMPLE

For Life series

Original title:
Dożywocie

Fantasy

January 2023 –
320 pages

English sample translation by Kate Webster

For Life

VOLUME 1

Konrad escapes to a remote house he unexpectedly inherits, hoping to heal after a breakup and finally finish his debut novel. But Lichotka offers anything but quiet – especially once its non human inhabitants make themselves known.

Original title:
Siła niższa

Fantasy

July 2023 –
288 pages

Lower Power

VOLUME 2

A madcap sequel to For Life, the bestselling series about the most absurd family in the history...
When Konrad takes in someone else's guardian angel, he soon discovers his new houseguest is less divine perfection and more otherworldly menace.

Original title:
Oczy uroczne

Fantasy

November 2023 –
336 pages

Enchanting Eyes

VOLUME 3

Oda decides it's time for a life revolution. She buys a remote plot of land and builds her sanctuary of peace. But one night, something hungry crawls out of the basement – and Oda must abandon her dream of quiet solitude to confront the past.

Original title: Nomen omen

October 2022 – 384 pages

Rights sold: Ukraine

Over 30.000 copies sold

Marta Kisiel

Nomen Omen

Breslau trilogy | VOLUME 1

A haunted house, a chatty parrot, ghostly phone calls, and sharp-tongued old ladies – Salome's latest adventure is anything but quiet. When her carefree brother stirs up trouble tied to a dark night in Festung Breslau, secrets unravel fast. A witty, chilling tale of impulsive choices and the shadows of the past.

Why this book?

- Awards and Nominations: Golden Bookmark: Book Bloggers Award 2014 – Winner in the category The Funniest Book and The Best Fantastic Novel
- Nominee in Janusz A. Zajdel Award 2014 in the Novel category

Original title: Toń

November 2022 – 336 pages

Rights sold: Ukraine

Over 30.000 copies sold

Marta Kisiel

Depths

Breslau trilogy | VOLUME 2

Three rules kept the Stern sisters safe – until one was broken. When a charming antiquarian crosses their threshold, long-buried secrets from wartime Breslau resurface. With a stolen treasure, a haunted past, and powers beyond reason, Eleonora and Jusi must uncover the truth – and decide if every mistake can be forgiven.

Why this book?

- Historical mystery and supernatural suspense
- Slow-burning horror rooted in real history
- Unique Kisiel's style of writing

Original title: Płacz

November 2025 – 320 pages

Rights sold: Ukraine

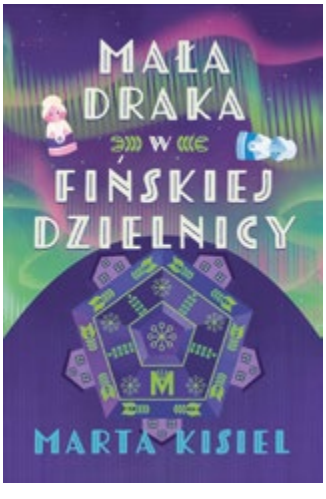
Over 30.000 copies sold

Marta Kisiel

Cry

Breslau trilogy | VOLUME 3

Great evil always begins with small evil.
After the harrowing experiences of the past summer, it seems the paths of the Stern sisters and their strict aunt have diverged for good. But a chance meeting in a quiet mountain café forces the former allies to reunite. With only a tattered postcard and an old teacup as clues, Djusi, Klara, Gerd, and Karolek – joined once more by Mrs. Matilda – depart Breslau on a quest to find the missing Eleonora before she vanishes without a trace.
What awaits them is far more sinister than expected. Time itself appears disturbed, awakening specters from their deepest nightmares. And Eleonora is not the only one fighting for her life in the chilling shadow of the snow-covered mountains.



Original title:
Mała draka w fińskiej dzielnicy

Fantasy / Fiction

May 2024 – 368 pages

Marta Kisiel

Small Trouble in Little Finnland

When Sława returns to Stare Deszczno, she expects peace, grannies, and nostalgia – not hairy potatoes, talking sidewalks, and deadly secrets. As strange events unfold in the idyllic town, she and her friends must uncover what the respectable grannies of Little Finnland are hiding – before someone pays the price again.

Why this book?

- Coming-of-age novel
- About generation Z and how they deal with true life
- Unique style

Original title: Gdzie są moje zwłoki?

Cosy Crime

February 2023 – 352 pages

Rights sold: Ukraine

Małgorzata Starosta

Where Did I Leave My Corpse?

Jeremi Organek series | VOLUME 1

Can you lose a corpse that never existed? Jeremi Organek thinks he's losing his mind when a body vanishes from the autopsy table. Linda Miller is sure the woman was real – and a strange object in her throat leads to the eerie Mokrzeszów Hospital. What secrets hide in its ruins, and who's desperate to erase all traces of the nameless victim?

Original title:
Komu zginął trup?

Cosy Crime

February 2024 – 256 pages

Rights sold: Ukraine

Małgorzata Starosta

Whose Body Went Missing?

Jeremi Organek series | VOLUME 2

A nameless corpse, a palace with too many secrets, and two reluctant sleuths caught in a theatrical mystery. Forensic pathologist Jeremi and historian Linda stumble into a century-old scandal, questionable art, and a trail of clues that lead straight to the Ducal Palace in Wleń. Cosy crime with wit, heart – and one very tragic dog.

Original title:
Kto zamawiał denata?

Cosy Crime

April 2025 – 304 pages

Rights sold: Ukraine

Małgorzata Starosta

Who Ordered the Deceased?

Jeremi Organek series | VOLUME 3

A suspected murder in Janowice Wielkie launches a chaotic investigation involving a dangling resident, a dangerous heist, and our favourite duo. Jeremi Organek and Linda Miller are once again asking for trouble. A double exdenate, a mysterious lawyer, a hidden treasure, and an innocent victim make this their toughest, and possibly final, case.

Original title:
Skąd wyleciało to ciało?

Cosy Crime

April 2026 – 304 pages

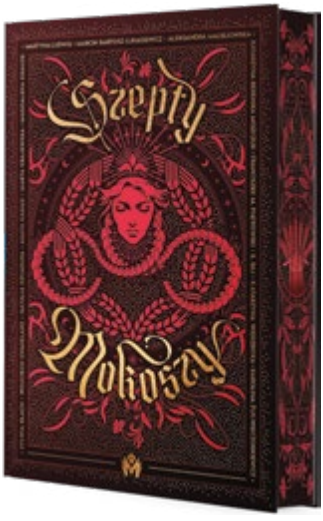
Małgorzata Starosta

Where Did That Corpse Came From?

Jeremi Organek series | VOLUME 4

They leave Lower Silesia convinced there will be no corpses, cadavers, or friendly policemen. Naturally, they find all three – plus a town near Warsaw hiding a century-old secret, a morgue with more surprises than a raffle, and Linda, who manages to annoy absolutely everyone (including the catering staff).

Join them as they stumble through the most notorious unsolved murder in Congress Poland (Tersin), complete with flying bodies, suspiciously unhelpful locals, and the kind of chaos only a comedy-crime duo could attract.



Original title:
Szepty Mokoszy

August 2025 – 680 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Anthology

The Mokosh's whispers

The goddess Mokosh watches over the earth, fertility, sheep, and women. Her whisper has the power to stir hearts and guide love's path.
Fourteen authors weave tales in the Slavic tradition, exploring the many shades of passion – the kind that sets the blood racing. But beyond love, these stories offer a blend of deep emotion, electrifying thrills, and moments of laughter.

The Mokosh's whispers is a gloriously collection of Slavic-inspired love stories where passion, fate, and magic intertwine with emotional intensity, and unique cultural perspective.

Original title:
Kwiat paproci i inne legendy słowiańskie

August 2025 – 464 pages

Anthology

The Fern Flower and other Slavic legends

Over 10.000 paper copies sold

The Fern Flower and other Slavic legends* is a gloriously collection of Slavic folk tales that is both thrilling and enchanting.

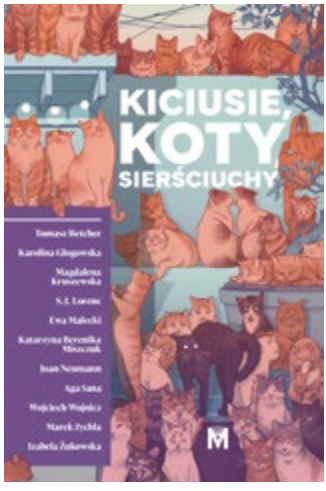
This anthology contains work from both the established masters of fantasy, and some more surprising contributors: from Katarzyna Berenika Miszczuk and Aneta Jadowska to Marta Kisiel. Each tale is a whisper from the shadows, a flicker of ancient memory that stirs the soul. These stories will enchant, unsettle, and transport you into the forgotten realms of Slavic myth, where legend walks hand in hand with wonder.
Step into a world where the past breathes anew, and long-lost rituals shimmer with life in this modern reawakening.



Original title:
Kiciusie, koty, sierściuchy

February 2025 – 400 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Anthology

Kittens, cats, furry friends

They always fall on four paws, serve witches, and even – if they run our way – bring bad luck.

Cats are individualists who have never been domesticated, which has fascinated people for centuries.

Eleven authors have created works inspired by these amazing creatures. Some have portrayed them as adorable kitties, or alluring cats, and others have seen the demonic incarnation of furrballs.

Who are our purring companions to you?

Original title: Wzgarda

Fantasy Crime

March 2025 – 528 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Original title: Zakon

Fantasy Crime

March 2026 – 592 pages

Paulina Hendel

Scorn

Kilian Storm series | VOLUME 1

A dark mystery unfolds on a cursed island where ancient crimes echo through bloodstained walls.
A Black Company agent vanishes on an island once used as a penal colony. Warden Sztorm, his deputy Ogre, and a mismatched Peace Watch uncover clues leading to an old murder site. As beasts stir in the forest and strangers arrive, a nightmare from legend awakens.

Why this book?

- Atmospheric Setting
- Unconventional protagonist: Warden Storm – a leader torn between duty and dread
- Cross-genre appeal: Perfect for fans of Terry Pratchett
- Folkloric Horror and Multi-Layered Mystery

Paulina Hendel

Order

Kilian Storm series | VOLUME 2

Bloody fairy tales are not easily forgotten.

In drought stricken Liberia, fear spreads as a newspaper editor's "suicide" reveals a buried truth. When more bodies appear – posed like fairy tales –the Peace Watch hunts a killer tied to the mythical unohora and the growing madness gripping the island's ogres.

Original title:
Zadzwoń, jak dojedziesz

November 2024 –
272 pages

Rights sold: Ready to Cross Borders

Jakub Bączykowski

Call me when you get there

Over 25.000 copies sold

Are children responsible for caring for their parents?

Three years after his wife's death, Ryszard's children gather in his small Wrocław flat. What begins as a warm reunion soon unravels into a tense confrontation rooted in childhood wounds. As emotions rise, each must face the question: who bears the weight of care – and of memory?

Why this book?

- Universal themes: aging, obligation and unresolved childhood wounds
- Emotional family drama
- A consistent bestseller

Jakub Bączykowski – born in the early 1980s in western Poland, he studied political science and has built a career in the tourism industry. He splits his time between Warsaw and the forests of Podlasie, where he enjoys walking his dogs and reading contemporary and crime fiction. His debut novel, Something Bad Will Happen, was published in 2023.

Contact

Joanna Maciuk
Rights Sales Manager

jmaciuk@wydawnictwomieta.pl

Wydawnictwo Mięta Sp. z o.o.
ul. Borowskiego 2 lok. 210
03-475 Warszawa

Our international Co-Agencies

China, Indonesia, Taiwan, Thailand and Vietnam
The Grayhawk Agency, Taiwan
Gray Tan, grayhawk@grayhawk-agency.com
phone: +886-2-27059231

Spain, Portugal and Latin America
Asterisc Agents, Barcelona
Natàlia Berenguer Gamell, natalia@asteriscagents.com
phone: +34 610 596 295

Italy
GDB Literary
Giulia De Biase, giulia@gdbliterary.it
phone: +39 3386143833

wydawnictwomieta.pl